

Flood at school

Builders have been fitting a new roof at school.

The rain came through the roof and made lots of the school very wet and classes have flooded.

The school is not safe at the moment.

Everyone needs to stay at home and do their work.

The builders are working hard to make it safe again.

When it is safe we can come back to school.